*EXHIBITION OPPORTUNITY FOR SELECTED ARTISTS AT WATERWORKS VISUAL ARTS CENTER – Fall 2019

Exhibition Venue II: Waterworks Visual Arts Center

Exhibition Dates: September 7, 2019-February 1, 2020

Public Opening Reception: September 13, 2019, 6-8 pm

Transportation of Selected Artwork: Following the special 3-day Carolina Bohemian Jam exhibition at the Rowan County Fairgrounds, all artwork pieces will be transported to the Waterworks Visual Arts Center for the museum's fall/winter exhibition period.

Pick-Up of Work: Artists are responsible for picking up exhibited works one week following the close of the exhibition or by February 21, 2020. Please call ahead of time to make arrangements with the museum to pick up work. Hours for pick up are weekdays (Monday-Friday), 10am-4pm.

Sale of Works: Waterworks does not participate in or receive commission from the sale of artwork. However, Waterworks will provide artist's contact information to interested collectors. Any work sold by artist during the show, must remain on display for the length of the exhibition. The artist is responsible for collecting money and arranging delivery of work sold following the exhibition. Waterworks cannot allow storage of works for pick-up.

Liability: The Waterworks Visual Arts Center exercises the utmost care of and respect for all objects on loan. Objects are handled only by WVAC agents or trained art handlers under the supervision of WVAC staff. Evidence of damage at the time of receipt or while in WVAC's custody will be reported immediately to the artist/lender. The artist/lender will be requested to provide written authorization for any alteration or repair.

Insurance is carried by Waterworks Visual Arts Center to provide coverage for individual art objects on exhibit in the Waterworks facility subject to normal insurance industry exclusions. While Waterworks' personnel will exercise all reasonable care in the handling, hanging, and storage of paintings and art objects, it can only assume responsibility for damage or loss to the extent that insurance coverage is provided, and the artist expressly holds the Waterworks harmless for any damage or loss which is not covered by insurance.

Marketing and Publicity: An exhibition artists' card will be created representing multiple artists and selected images. Each artist will receive 25 cards for personal distribution. Exhibiting artists will be recognized in all marketing media before and during the exhibition period.

About Waterworks Visual Arts Center

The Waterworks Visual Arts Center is a not-for-profit, non-collecting visual arts museum located in Salisbury, North Carolina. Founded in 1959, it is one of only twelve (12) nationally accredited art museums in North Carolina.

Now celebrating 60 years, Waterworks strives to be a leader and innovator in the exhibition of art and in museum education. Creative and expressive artwork from established and emerging regional and local artists, are featured in three annual rotating exhibitions. The museum is open free of charge six days a week. For more information visit: www.waterworks.org.

About Carolina Bohemian Jam

The Carolina Bohemian Jam is the must-see festival of the Carolinas' celebration to commemorate the era of music that would influence generations to come. The celebration will be held August 16-18, 2019 at the Rowan County Fairgrounds in Salisbury, North Carolina. Live music on multiple stages will feature tribute bands from the 1960s and 1970s, such as The Who, Credence Clearwater Revival, Jimi Hendrix, Jefferson Airplane and more, as well as local musicians. Arts and craft vendors will feature original handmade and one-of-a-kind creations along with a special juried art exhibition curated by Waterworks Visual Arts Center.

This is a ticketed event. For more information visit www.CarolinaBohemianJam.com
